Of what passed at the
E X E C U T I O N

Of the Late
Duke of Monmouth,

On Wednesday the 15th of July, 1685. on Tower-Hill.

T O G E T H E R

With a Paper Signed by Himself that morning in the Tower, in the Presence of the Lords Bishops of Ely, and Bath and Wells, Dr. Tenison, and Dr. Hooper.

A N D A L S O,

The Copy of His Letter to His MAJESTY after he was taken,
Dated at Ringwood in *Hants*shire, the 8th of July.

THe late Duke of Monmouth came from the Tower to the Scaffold, attended by the Bishop of Ely, the Bishop of Bath and Wells, Dr. Tenison and Dr. Hooper, which four the King was graciously pleased to send him, as his Assistants to prepare him for Death; and the late Duke himself intreated all four of them, to accompany him to the Place of Execution, and to continue with him to the last. The two Bishops going in the Lieutenant's Coach with him to the Barrs, made seasonable and devout Applications to him all the way; and one of them desired him not to be surprized, if they to the very last upon the Scaffold, renewed those Exhortations to a Particular Repentance, which they had so often repeated before.

At his first coming upon the Scaffold, he looked for the Executioner, and seeing him, said, Is this the man to do the business? Do your work well.

Then the late Duke of Monmouth began to speak, some one or other of the Assistants during the whole time, applying themselves to him.

Monmouth. I shall say but very little; I come to die; I die a Protestant of the Church of England.

Assistants. My Lord, if you be of the Church of England, you must acknowledge the Doctrine of Non-resistance to be True.

M. If I acknowledge the Doctrine of the Church of England, in general, that includes all.

A. Sir, it is fit to own that Doctrine particularly, with respect to your Case. Here he was much urged about that Doctrine of Non-resistance, but he repeated in effect his first Answer.

Then he began as if he was about to make a premeditated Speech, in this manner.

M. I have had a Scandal raised upon me about a Woman, a Lady of Vertue and Honour. I will name her; the Lady Henrietta Wentworth. I declare, That she is a very Vertuous and Godly Woman. I have committed no Sin with her; and that which hath passed betwixt Us, was very Honest and Innocent in the sight of God.

A. In your Opinion perhaps, Sir, as you have been often told; (i. e. in the Tower) but this is not fit Discourse in this Place.

Mr. Sher. Gofflin. Sir, were you ever married to her?

M. This is not a Time to Answer that Question.

Mr. Sher. Gofflin. Sir, I hoped to have heard of your Repentance for the Treason and Bloodshed, which hath been committed.

M. I dy very Penitent.

A. My Lord, It is fit to be Particular; and considering the Publick Evil you have done, you ought to do as much good now, as possibly you can, by a Publick acknowledgment.

M. What I have thought fit to say of Publick Affairs, is in a Paper which I have signed; I refer to my Paper.

A. My Lord, there is nothing in that Paper about Resistance, and you ought to be Particular in your Repentance, and to have it well grounded. God give you True Repentance.

M. I dy very Penitent, and dy with great Chearfulness, for I know I shall go to God.

A. My Lord, you must go to God in his own way: Sir, be sure you be truly Penitent, and ask forgiveness of God, for the Many you have wronged.

M. I am sorry for every one I have wronged; I forgive every Body, I have had many Enemies, I forgive them all.

A. Sir, your acknowledgment ought to be Publick and Particular.

M. I am to die; pray, My Lord — I refer to my Paper.

A. They are but a few Words that we desire: We onely desire an Answer to this Point.

M. I can bless God that he hath given me so much Grace, that for these two years last past, I have led a Life unlike to my former Course, and in which I have been happy.

A. Sir, Was there no Ill in these two Years? In these years, these great Evils have happened, and the giving publick Satisfaction is a necessary part of Repentance; be pleased to own a Detestation of your REBELLION.

M. I beg your Lordship that you will stick to my Paper.

A. My Lord, as I said before, there is nothing in your Paper, about the Doctrine of Non-resistance.

M. I repent of all things that a true Christian ought to repent of. I am to die; pray, My Lord —

A. Then (My Lord) we can only recommend you to the Mercy of God, but we cannot pray with that Chearfulness, and Encouragement as we should, if you had made a Particular Acknowledgment.

M. God be praised, I have Encouragement enough in my self; I die with a clear Conscience; I have wronged no man.

A. How Sir, no man? Have you not been guilty of Invasion, and of much Blood, which has been shed, and it may be of the loss of many Souls who followed you? You must needs have wronged a great many.

M. I do, Sir, own that, and am sorry for it.

A. Give it the true name, Sir, and call it Rebellion.

M. What name you please, Sir, I am sorry for invading the Kingdom, and for the Blood that has been shed, and for the Souls which may have been lost by my means, I am sorry it ever happened [which he spake softly.]

Mr. Sher. Vandeput. [To some that stood at a distance.] He says he is very sorry for invading the Kingdom.

A. We have nothing to add, but to renew the frequent Exhortations we have made to you, to give some Satisfaction for the publick Injuries to the Kingdom. There have been a great many lives lost by this Resistance of your LAWFUL PRINCE.

M. What I have done has been very ill, and I wish with all my heart it had never been; I never was a man that delighted in Blood; I was very far from it; I was as cautious in that as any man was; the Almighty knows how I now die, with all the Joyfulness in the World.

A. God grant you may, Sir; God give you True Repentance.

M. If I had not True Repentance, I should not so easily have been without the fear of dying. I shall die like a Lamb.

A. Much may come from natural Courage.

M. I do not attribute it to my own Nature, for I am fearful as other men are ; but I have now no fear, as you may see by my Face, but there is something within me which does it, for I am sure I shall go to God.

A. My Lord, be sure upon good Grounds ; Do you repent you of all your Sins, known or unknown, confessed or not confessed, of all the Sins which might proceed from Error in Judgment ?

M. In general for all, I do with all my Soul.

A. God Almighty of his infinite Mercy forgive you. Here are great numbers of Spectators, here are the Sheriffs, they represent the Great City, and in speaking to them, you speak to the whole City ; make some Satisfaction by owning your Crime before them.

He was silent here.

Then all went to solemn Commendatory Prayers, which continued for a good space, the late Duke of Monmouth and the Company kneeling, and joyning in them with great fervency.

Prayers being ended, before he and the four who assisted him, were risen from their Knees, he was again earnestly exhorted to a true and thorough Repentance.

After they were risen up, he was exhorted to pray for the King ; and was asked, Whether he did not desire to send some dutiful Message to His Majesty, and to recommend his Wife and Children to his Majesty's Favour.

M. What harm have they done : do it if you please ; I pray for him, and for all men.

A. Then the Versicles were repeated.

O Lord shew thy Mercy upon us.

M. [ He made the Response. ] And grant us thy Salvation.

A. [ It followed. ] O Lord save the King.

M. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

A. Sir, do you not pray for the King with us ? ( The Versicle was again repeated. )

O Lord save the King.

M. ( After some pause he answered ) Amen.

Then he spake to the Executioner concerning his undressing, &c. and he would have no Cap, &c. and at the beginning of his undressing it was said to him on this manner :

A. My Lord, you have been bred a Souldier, you will do a generous Christian thing, if you please to go to the Rail, and speak to the Souldiers, and say, That here you stand a sad example of Rebellion, and entreat them and the People to be Loyal, and Obedient to the King.

M. I have said I will make no Speeches ; I will make no Speeches ; I come to die.

A. My Lord, ten words will be enough.

Then calling his Servant, and giving him something like a Tooth-pick-Case ; here ( said he ) give this to the Person, to whom you are to deliver the other things.

M. ( To the Executioner. ) Here are six Guineys for you ; Pray do your Business well ; don't serve me as you did my Lord Russel ; I have heard you struck him three or four times.

Here ( to his Servant ) take these remaining Guineys and give them to him, if he does his Work well.

Exec. I hope I shall.

M. If you strike me twice, I cannot promise you not to stir.

During his undressing and standing towards the Block there were used by those who assisted him, divers Ejaculations proper at that time, and much of 51st Psalm was repeated, and particularly, Deliver me from Blood Guiltiness, O God, Thou God, &c.

Then he lay down, and soon after he raised himself upon his Elbow, and said to the Executioner, Prethee let me feel the Ax ; he felt the Edge, and said, I fear it is not sharp enough.

Executioner. It is sharp enough, and heavy enough.

Then he lay down again.

During this space many pious Ejaculations were used by those that assisted him with great fervency. Ex. Gr. God accept your Repentance, God accept your Repentance, God accept your IMPERFECT Repentance ; My Lord, God accept your GENERAL Repentance ; God Almighty shew his OMNIPOTENT Mercy upon you ; Father into thy Hands we commend his Spirit, &c. Lord Jesus, receive his Soul.

Then

Then the Executioner proceeded to do his Office.

A Copy of the Paper, to which the late Duke of Monmouth referred himself in the Discourses he held upon the Scaffold.

I Declare, That the Title of King was forc't upon me, and, That it was very much contrary to my Opinion, when I was Proclaimed. For the satisfaction of the World, I do declare, That the late King told me, He was never Married to my Mother. Having declared this, I hope that the King, who is now, will not let my Children suffer on this account. And to this I put my Hand this fifteenth day of July, 1685.

A Copy of the Duke of Monmouth's Letter to the King, Dated from Ringwood the 8th of July, 1685.

SIR,

Your Majesty may think, it is the Misfortune I now ly under, makes me make this Application to You; but I do assure your Majesty, it is the Remorse I now have in me, of the Wrong I have done You in several things, and now, in taking up Arms against You. For my taking up Arms, it never was in my Thoughts since the King died. The Prince and Princess of Orange will be Witness for me, of the Assurance I gave them, That I would never stir against You; but my Misfortune was such, as to meet with some Horrid People, that made me believe things of your Majesty, and gave me so many false Arguments, that I was fully led away, to believe, That it was a Shame and a Sin before God not to do it. But, Sir, I will not trouble your Majesty at present with many things I could say for my self, that I am sure would move your Compassion, the chief end of this Letter being only to beg of You, That I may have that Happiness, as to speak to your Majesty: For I have that to say to You, Sir, that I hope may give You a long and happy Reign. I am sure, Sir, when You hear me, You will be convinced of the Zeal I have for your Preservation, and how heartily I repent of what I have done. I can say no more to your Majesty now, being this Letter must be seen by those that keep me. Therefore, Sir, I shall make an end, in begging of your Majesty to believe so well of me, That I would rather dy a thousand Deaths, than excuse any thing I have done, if I did not really think my self the most in the wrong, that ever any Man was, and had not from the bottom of my Heart an abhorrence for those that put me upon it, and for the Action it self. I hope, Sir, God Almighty will strike your Heart with Mercy and Compassion for me, as he has done mine with the abhorrence of what I have done. Therefore I hope, Sir, I may live to show You how Zealous I shall ever be for your Service; and could I say but one Word in this Letter, You would be convinced of it; but it is of that consequence, That I dare not do it. Therefore, Sir, I do beg of You once more to let me speak to You, for then You will be convinced how much I shall ever be, Your Majesties most Humble and Dutiful

MONMOUTH.
